Disunionism - The Richmond Enquirer.

The Richmond Enquirer is an administration paper, and receives as much of the countenance and support of President Pierce as any other in the Union not published in the capital. Among the democrats of Virginia it is the very mirror of faith and opinion. It is imbued with all their prejudices and feelings, and never has it yet dropped a word upon the delicate subject of slavery and all the political topics growing out of it, that has failed to meet with the approval of orthodox southern democrats. Its party says it is a moderate and conservative paper; and we believe ourselves it has been destitute to a great degree of that inflammatory malignity that characterizes most locofoco sheets. Now, we have long believed that a large section of the Sag-Nicht party in the South have been and are yet determined if possible to effect the dissolution of this glorious Union; and we are confirmed in that opinion by an article in a late number of the aforesaid Richmond Enquirer, which we copy into our columns that our readers may see it.

As we have already remarked, that paper is by its party regarded as being unusually mild and conservative. Now mark what the Enquirer says: It tells us that a dissolution of the bonds which hold these States together must inevitably occur within twelve months. That within one year Kansas Territory will ask for admission into the Union as a State; that the North will refuse her admittance with slavery in her constitution, and that the South then ought and will arise and break the cords that bind us together, and that it would be base cowardice in her to do otherwise. Now who is so blind or so obstinate as not to see that the wish was the father to the above prediction? No man who is a lover of the Union would have uttered such a prophecy and sent it broad cast over the land. He would have feared that giving publicity to such anticipations would hasten the terrible crisis of which he was speaking.

The editor of the Enquirer should have reflected before he permitted such wicked balderdash to be put into his paper, that such prophecies are exceedingly inflammatory; that they cannot possibly do any good; that they will certainly do harm, and raise a tempest of angry passions. But why admonish such a man; he does not care. The height of his ambition is to arouse sectional prejudices and excite different portions of his fellow-citizens against each other. Assuredly, no friend of his country wrote the article of which we are speaking. He is a traitor to her best interests, and richly merits hanging, and it is a great pity they do not raise hemp in Virginia with which to hang such scamps. He may be honest in his opposition to the Union, but he is a dangerous man and should not be allowed to stay among us. But what renders his atrocity complete, what makes him a criminal of the deep-dye, is that in the same article he recommends that Virginia shall at once organize and equip an armed force of 20,000 men, to protect her in the war which he thinks will follow the dissolution of the Union. What so well calculated as such an appeal as this to excite the Northern States to arm likewise, and if the North and South should, in a time of profound peace, each commence making preparations for war upon the other, disunion would as certainly ensue as that the father of his country warned us to beware of such a thing. We have no doubt that as a general thing, the leaders of the Sag-Nicht party at the South endorse every word the Enquirer utters, and like it are bent upon separating these States if possible.

Fellow-citizens, will you blindly adhere to such a party, when you see that such is the course they are taking. We know that the honest portion of the democratic party, the farmers and mechanics, the bone and sinew of their country, have no such designs in their hearts, but we very much fear that their leaders have. We believe that the former love their country, and would be willing to make almost any sacrifice for its good; but we also believe that the latter have schemes in their heads inimical to the Union and the country, and if we had time, we could adduce proofs that would make our assertion so plain, that few could doubt it. Beware of demagogues, for we have them among us. Listen to no man who preaches disunion, or speaks of it as a probable event. The democratic press has raised the cry, and soon it will be echoed by their orators and political aspirants, but turn a deaf ear to them.

Santa Anna abdicated! See particulars among the telegrams.

Union Agricultural Society.
The second annual Fair of the Union Agricultural Society of Mason and Bracken counties, will be held on the Fair Grounds, near Germantown, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the 24, 25, 26, 27 and 28 days of October, 1855.

F. A. Savage, Esq., has sent us the catalogue of articles to be exhibited, together with the names of the Judges, premiums, &c., from which we learn that several of the most intelligent gentlemen of Harrison have been selected as judges of fine stock, &c.

The Union Agricultural Society bids fair to become one of the best in Kentucky. The first exhibition last fall was very satisfactory; and brought out the agricultural wealth of Mason, Bracken and the adjoining counties.

ORGANIZE! ORGANIZE!
We would earnestly urge upon the American party of Harrison the importance of immediate and thorough organization for the next campaign. We must not go to sleep on our oars. Our opponents have not lost all hope. The American party in Harrison should hold weekly meetings, at their respective council rooms, and have a general consultation, and make arrangements for a glorious campaign next year. We are confident that in a Presidential contest, where no personal influences are brought to bear, old Harrison will give from four to five hundred American majority.

California Papers.
We are indebted to our friend, Dr. H. W. A. WORTHEN, of Placerville, for a bundle of late California papers. He will please accept our thanks. The bundle consisted of

The Daily Placer Times and Transcript. Published at San Francisco, by EDWIN BELL, at $15.00 per annum. It is a large and well-conducted paper, and the oldest (save one) in the State.

The Sacramento Daily Union. Published at Sacramento, by J. ANTHONY & Co. The Union is a neat business paper, and is a perfect epitome of mining news.

The Town Talk. Is a diminutive daily, published at San Francisco, by P. P. HULL & Co., at a bit per week. The Town Talk is like Vinegar's wife, "small—but sweet," and contains as much fun and wit as the Louisville Democrat does nor.

The Placerville American. Is the title of a new paper published at Placerville, by our former fellow-townsmen, Dr. S. F. CHILD, and edited by W. WADSWORTH, Esq. It is devoted to the American policy, and its editorials are remarkable for their piquancy and vivacity. VIVE LE AMERICAIN! NOUS PARLONS, GENTLEMEN.

We cannot close our notice of the Doctor's paper, without fully endorsing the sentiment of the Sacramento Daily Union:

"A MODEL WEEKLY.—The Placerville American is the NE PLUS ULTRA of country weekly newspapers."

Temperance Papers.
W. W. GRUELLE, Esq., of this place, has issued the prospectus of a new temperance paper, to be called the "Kentucky Prohibitionist," the first number to be issued about the 1st of October, provided a sufficient list of subscribers can be obtained to justify the undertaking. To be published weekly—terms $1 50 per annum; the money to be paid on the receipt of the first number. Mr Gruelle announces that he has engaged some of the best writing talent in the State, to contribute for his paper.

We learn from the Frankfort Commonwealth, that the publishing committee of the Grand Division, have issued the prospectus for a semi-monthly paper to be called the "Temperance Advocate," the first number to be issued early in September. Lysander Hord, Esq., of Frankfort, is to be editor. All orders to be addressed to A. G. HODGES & Co., Frankfort. Terms—$1 per annum, in advance.

Inauguration of Gov. Morehead.
The Inauguration of Gov. Morehead, will take place at Frankfort, on Tuesday next, Sept. 4th. Extensive preparations have been made to have a grand time at the ushering into office of the first AMERICAN GOVERNOR OF KENTUCKY!—The exercises will close by a grand Inauguration Ball, on Tuesday evening, at 9 o'clock, at the "Capital Hotel," in Frankfort. So says the Commonwealth.

The Paris Citizen, of Friday last, says: "Our town is entirely free from cholera, there having been no cases since our last issue."

The Circus is Coming.
It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that Messrs. Horner & Bell's Railroad Circus will exhibit at Cynthiana on Tuesday afternoon and night next, at 2 and 7 o'clock. We see that wherever this circus has been, our exchanges speak in terms of high praise. We expect a rich treat. It will also exhibit at Falmouth on Wednesday.

OUR COUNTRY

The Banner Precinct!

The committee to whom the matter was referred, have after some delay, awarded the Flag to Rutland precinct, it having given the largest American majority, at the recent election, in proportion to the number of votes polled.—The Flag is now ready, subject to the order of the American party of the "Old Ironsides" precinct.

We regret to learn that our friend Gibbons, of the Harrodsburg Plow-man, has gone off on another big spree, at least we judge so from the appearance of his last paper. Friend Zimmerman, of the Danville Tribune, should have an eye on the young man. He doesn't care for "nothin' nor nobody," when he gets in a tan-trim!

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK for September has come to hand. Like its predecessors it is full of matters peculiarly interesting to the ladies. If we were a lady we should not willingly do without Godey's Lady's Book.

Meeting of Caldwell Council.
We are requested to state that Caldwell Council, No. 11, of the American party, will hold a meeting on Wednesday night next, Sept. 5th, at their hall in Cynthiana. Let there be a general attendance, as business of importance will come up.

LADIES' BELTS.—If the ladies want something nice in the way of belts, they would do well to call at Martin's.

FRUIT JARS.—Martin has an excellent article for preserving all kinds of fruit in its natural state, for any length of time.

Mrs. ORMSBY'S SCHOOL.—The time of opening this school has been postponed to Monday, Sept. 17th. Mrs. Ormsby's new building will be ready by that time.

Removal.
Messrs. WILSON McGREW & SON have removed their Jewelry Establishment from 137 Main street, to the South-west corner of Main and Fourth streets, seven doors north of their old stand.

The Queen City cannot boast of a better establishment of the kind than theirs. See their advertisement in this paper.

See advertisement of Robert T. McGill, successor to F. Smith & Woodward, Covington.

TREMONT HOUSE, CHICAGO.—The old friends of James F. Ware, Esq., late of Cynthiana, will be pleased to learn that he is now officiating at the above Hotel, as clerk. It is one of the finest hotels in the west. Succession does not contain a more clever young man than Jim Ware.

Fine Vegetables.
We are indebted to Mr. John Brown, of this vicinity, for some fine vegetables. One fine beet, weighing 4 lbs., and some fine potatoes and onions. They are the finest we have seen. Who can beat them?

John Lundin has commenced the watch and clock repairing business in the building under the News Office.—See advertisement.

STRAYED.—See John Redmon's advertisement—"strayed, strayed."

Colt Show Next Saturday.
We are requested to say, that there will be a Colt-show in Cynthiana, on Saturday, Sept. 1st. The colts of several fine horses will be shown, and premiums awarded to the finest.

The Carlisle American.
This excellent paper comes to us regularly. Its talented editor, J. A. Chappelle, Esq., done efficient service in the recent glorious campaign, as the vote of old Nicholas fully proves. The American has a large circulation, and is an excellent medium through which to advertise. By the way, would it not be well enough for some of our school teachers to advertise in the American? It is extensive circulation in that portion of Nicholas lying adjacent to Harrison county.

DEATH OF DEMPSEY CARROLL.—This gentleman, who is well known to the Masonic fraternity throughout Kentucky, died at his residence in Maysville, on Monday night last.

To Our Patrons.
The fifth volume of the "News" is fast drawing to an end, and as we design making some changes in the appearance of our paper, such as new type, &c., it is very important that persons who have been owing us notes and accounts for a year or more, should call and settle immediately. If we just had what is owing to us, we would have money to lend.

THE LEGISLATURE OF KANSAS.—A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat gives the following statistics of the Legislature of Kansas:

"The youngest member is 23 years of age, the oldest 55. There are three farmers in the Council, fifteen in the House; five lawyers in the Council, two in the House; in the House four physicians, in the Council one; in the House four merchants, in the Council two; in the Council there is one civil engineer and a printer, and in the House a teacher.

Virginia gave to the Council three members and to the House five; Ohio to the Council one, House one; Kentucky to the Council seven, House seven; Louisiana to the Council one; Iowa to the Council one; Missouri to the House four; Pennsylvania to the House two, and Tennessee two members; Maryland to the House two; while of native birth there is only one member, Mr. Johnson.

"The catalogue shows that of the nineteen members of the Council nine came from Missouri, while of the twenty-six who compose the House twenty-one came from our own State. Nine of the Council and twenty Representatives are married."

Is Mr. Pierce a Patriot?

We read daily of the services which this eminent public officer has rendered to the country. Will he give one evidence that he deserves these encomiums? Mr. Pierce must see that his personal unpopularity is one great cause of the present strife. It is said by his own party that he has received them in three important particulars:

1. In inviting the Abolition Democracy to a participation in the offices of the government, and in turning out Union Democrats to make way for them.

2. In his employing foreigners to conduct some of our most delicate foreign relations.

3. In having promoted men hostile to the present form of government to public station.

4. In having violated his inaugural pledge not to disturb the harmony of the sections, by agitating the then dormant questions of slavery.—American Organ.

Arrival of the Pacific.

The steamship Pacific arrived this morning from Liverpool with European dates to the 14th instant.

The Havre steamship Arago arrived off Southampton on the morning of the 10th.

Omar Pacha has been appointed to command the Turkish troops in Asia.

The siege of Kars continues without any definite result.

Bardians has been again bombarded. It is reported in Paris that Revel had been successfully bombarded. But the truth probably is that the fleet is assembling in the Baltic for the supposed immediate attack upon Heligoland.

The French Government publishes an inflated account of a discovered Legitimist conspiracy to excite an insurrection in Spain and further the ends of Russia.

It is definitely stated, but still seems doubtful, that Spain will supply 25,000 troops to be in the pay of the allies. Portugal, it is also said, will furnish 10,000 troops.

The Italian General Pape is dead.

Mlle Rachel, the distinguished tragedienne, is among the passengers by the Pacific.

The following was telegraphed from London to our Liverpool agent just as the steamer left: London Saturday, 11th A. M.—The Invalid de Russe, of August 29, publishes the Russian general's report of the events before Kars to the 11th ult., not so late by three days as the letters to Lapadegge, and two days earlier than the attempted attack on the town.

From the New York Herald.
The Late Dinner of Judge Mason, Judge Douglas and Gen. Pierce at the White House.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 18, 1855.
You are aware that very lately Mr. Senator Mason, of Virginia, and Senator Douglas, of Illinois, dined with the President at the White House, and you were right in supposing that they had something at the dinner besides bacon and cabbage.

Since Judge Douglas has gone off to the North, and the President and Mr. Mason have departed for the Virginia white, red, blue, salt and sweet sulphur springs, the secret, in part, is out. The leading conversation at that dinner was upon Kansas, Reeder, Atchison, Stringfellow, &c. Mason approved the removal of Reeder, but said that a Southern man ought to have gone to Kansas in the first place—not a compromiser, but a regular fire eater. Mr. Pierce smiled, and said that he had to consult both sections. He didn't like to remove Reeder, because at the Pennsylvania October election it might do some damage to the party; whereas, there was other wise a hope, this fall, of saving Pennsylvania.—Could not Reeder have been spared till the middle of October? Mason said not. Virginia would desert you if there were any further tampering. You are with us or against us. Let Reeder go, and we will provide against the desertion of Pennsylvania. Keep up the excitement, and while we break up the know Nothings on the rock of slavery, we can get the democracy together again. Make Stringfellow Governor of Kansas, after the fall elections, and we shall secure a distinct understanding on the slavery issue upon the meeting of this new abolition Congress. Let us see where they are.

Judge Douglas demurred. The whole of our difficulties in this Kansas imbroglio had resulted from the outrageous proceedings of Atchison, Doniphan, and the rest. Stringfellow was but the Stringfellow of Atchison, doing his work for a prospective consideration. Between Doniphan and Atchison, in their desperate rivalry to secure the suffrage of the pro-slavery party of Missouri for the United States Senate, in the next Missouri Legislature, all these Kansas border troubles had been created. The proceedings of those men had brought popular sovereignty in the Territories into contempt and the whole country on both sides to the dangerous issue of a most violent and virulent sectional contest for the Presidency. Nor can we hope to rally the Northern democracy together till this Doniphan, Atchison and Stringfellow Legislature of Kansas is set aside, its acts declared null and void, and provision made for a government of the Territory by the bona fide people thereof, according to the law. We must do this before we can hope to rally the Northern democracy to the support of the Nebraska bill.

Mason didn't care for the Northern Democracy—didn't want them—the time had gone for that. A sectional contest is inevitable. If Mr. Pierce is with us, we shall sustain him—if not where else can the administration look for support?

Such, I understood, was substantially a part of that dinner conversation at the White House between Messrs. Pierce, Douglas and Mason. It may be overcolored, or it may not be colored sufficiently high. Of one thing I am positively assured, and that is, that Judge Douglas makes no secret of his denunciations of Doniphan, Atchison and Stringfellow, in consequence of the odium which their proceedings have brought upon the great saving territorial doctrine of squatter sovereignty.
